

KNICKERBOCKER ICE FESTIVAL

AGENDA

Festival Hours: Saturday 11:00 - Dark, Sunday 11:00 to 4:00

Ice Sculpting Invitational: All Festival Hours Cast your vote for your favorite sculpture
Saturday: 1:00 - 4:30 and Sunday: 11:00 - 12:00. Pick up voting ballots at Knick's Canteen
Prize awarded Sunday 2:00 at the Stage

About the Competing Sculptors...

Earl Covington was the fan favorite at the 2010 Knickerbocker Ice Festival. An Emmy™-award winning ice carver who, in 1997, earned second place at the World Ice Art Championships.

Bill Covitz was the Grand Champion at the 2004 National Ice Carving Association's Nationals, placing first on both days of the two-day competition. In 2006, he placed second at the World Ice Art Championships. In 2009, he placed second in the National Ice Carving Nationals.

Gary Costa has worked with ice since 1979. He has been in many area competitions, and he specializes in custom work, logos and symbols.

John Hedbavny is a 1999 graduate of the Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park, NY. He has been ice carving full-time for about a decade.

Featured Ice Sculpture: "Blessing Our Sacred Waters" by local artist Rob Patalano of Rockland Lake Ice Company at the Knickerbocker Ice House

Ice Gallery: All Festival Hours: Historic Images of Rockland Lake frozen into huge blocks of ice.

Artists in the Parks: Amazing works of art in the making and for auction. All Festival Hours

Hike Around the Lake: Sat & Sun 12:00. A 2-3 mile hike around the lake led by NY Sports Club fitness pro who will share tips on staying active and healthy. Meet at the big stage.

Stay Warm Workout: Sat & Sun 2:00 A simple, fun set of calisthenics at the big stage.

Knick's Inferno (Blazing Bonfire): Saturday 4:30

Knick's Canteen (Food and Drink to Warm the Spirit): All Festival Hours
Canteen Restaurants: At Your Service, NY, Bear Mountain Inn, Great American Barbeque, Woody's All Natural, Just Buns, Aurora chocolates, Linekin Kettle Corn

Knick's Pub (Beer Service Complements of FIRE + ICE): All Festival Hours. Adults only

Arctic Artisans (Hudson Valley Craft Vendors): All Festival Hours. Located in Knick's Canteen

KIDZ Ice Park: Bowling, Igloo building, snowball throwing and more:
Saturday 12:00 - 5:00, Sunday 12:00 - 3:00

IGLOO Village: All Festival Hours

Self-Guided History Walk: From the KIDZ Ice Park to the Knickerbocker Ice House ruins

Cool Moves (Look for the big Stage and Dance along to the DJ Company):
Saturday 12:00 - 5:00, Sunday 12:00 - 3:00

Ice Festival Parking is $6.00.

Limited Shuttle Bus Service between parking lot and Festival grounds.

Ice Festival Map

Emergency Services Information:

The most common cold-weather related injuries are hypothermia and frostbite. For any emergency, notify a festival volunteer or call Police Emergency Services at 845-786-2781.

